What's The Plan: My most recent animatic, focused on practicing expressions and timing.
Audio from It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia (2005-Present)
Software Used: Storyboard Pro and After Effects

Knock at the Door: A small animation experimenting with fluid motions and weight of a character's limbs and body
Software Used: Toon Boom Essentials

The Big Pitch: My first real animatic focused on timing and movement of the camera.
Audio from The Lego Movie (2014)
Software Used: Storyboard Pro and Premiere Pro

Flour Bag: An animation exercise using weight to convey emotion from an emotionless object
Software Used: Toon Boom Essentials
